

Author Information:

Name: Javin Lamar Dodd

Email address: Javind26@gmail.com

School: Sipsey Valley Middle School

School System: Baldwin County

Lesson Title:

Coach Dodd visual Tour to the Olympics

Overview:

Many students watch the olympics and wonder what its about and how each events works. Students will be taught the different events in the Olympics and also a tour of a Olympic Stadium thats close to the school.

Course of Study Standard(s):

PE (8) Demonstrate competence in a variety of activities.

- Field Events
- Sprints Events

PE (7) Explain the impact of participating in multicultural physical activities.

PE (10) Critique a community service project that involves physical activity by identifying benefits, problems, compromises, and outcomes.

National/Other Standards: (Optional)Learning Objective(s):

Students will learn the history of the Olympics and the events that are participated there.

Learning Target(s) OPTIONALApproximate Duration:

30 to 60 mins

Materials and Resources:

Students will need access to computer and also the ability to use the internet.

Background/Preparation:

No Student prerequisite required as this is an introductory lesson

Lesson Procedures:

1.)Introduce the history of track

2.)Describe to students the importance the Olympics is for the World and great honor to represent your country

3.)Review popular events associated with the Olympic s

4.)After all students have had the chance to to go through the whole tour near the end of class, have students with play a fun trivia game the highest score will be presented to the class .

Assessment Strategies (Evaluate):

Students will be assessed objectively on their understanding of history of the Olympics and events and basic knowledge of track and field via trivia quiz game.

Acceleration:

Briefly list and describe activities/learning opportunities that might be used by students to expand the understanding of concepts or development of skills introduced in the lesson.

Intervention:

Explain, list, and describe activities/learning opportunities that may be used by students who need extra preparation before or assistance after the lesson.

Attachments:

http://www.funtrivia.com/quizzes/sports/sports_other/track__field.html number 3

Copyright 2017 Alabama Learning Exchange